

IT314 Lab 4

-202201441

Het Panchotiya

Question 1

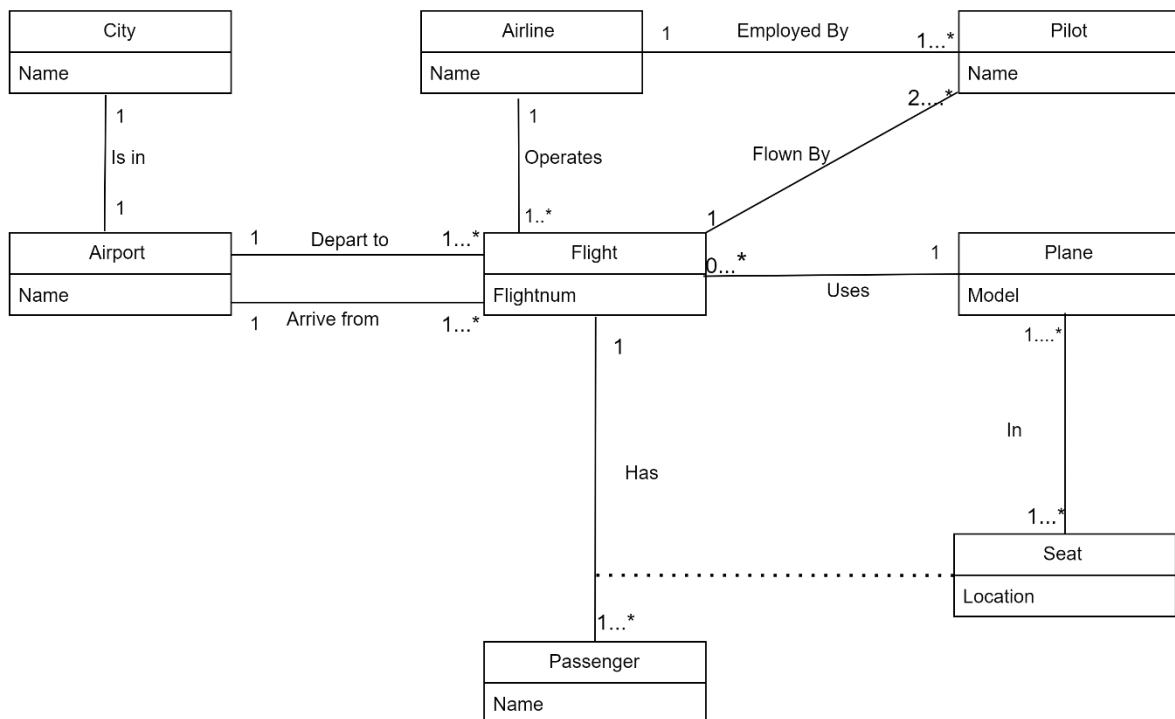

Question 2

- A polygon can have minimum 3 points and maximum of infinite points. Hence multiplicity is 3...* .
- A point must be a part of a polygon, but can also be a part of multiple polygons, hence a multiplicity of 1...* .
- Yes, it makes a difference that points could be shared between polygons, as it changes the multiplicity.

Question 3

Question 4

